History & Heritage

Former family house of the very famous painter Henri de Toulouse-Lautrec (1864 - 1901), the Château was his shelter for peaceful summer retreats from his Parisian life. He installed his art workshop and ended his life there, at the age of 37. The Château is also a 43-hectare vineyard that has been in operation for over five centuries, with a rich biodiversity.

Let's dive into the world of Lautrec in this 16th century house located in South Gironde, 40 minutes away from Bordeaux and 10 minutes from Langon, in the area of Entre-deux-Mers.

A living place between tradition & modernity

The Huynh family, current owner, bought the Château in 2013 and is involved in preserving this heritage while providing an undeniable modernity, by bringing together know-how and savoir-vivre.

Awarded the “Maison des Illustres” label in 2016, Château Toulouse-Lautrec embodies a historic living place combining culture, wine, events, guest rooms, and wellness. An ideal setting for relaxing, unwind and enchanting your daily life.
